

ICT Africa SUMMIT™

Regional Integration Through ICT Networks

INTRODUCTION

The NEPAD ICT Africa Summit 2010 aims at promoting and supporting business opportunities in the sector of Information and Communication Technologies (ICT) in order to encourage further growth and development in African countries as well mobilise the major practitioners involved in ICT, e-business and related sectors all over the world, due to take place on 9th to 11th February 2010 at the Cape Town International Convention Centre in Cape Town, South Africa.

SUMMIT OBJECTIVES

Benefits to participants include:

First hand selected business opportunities

NEPAD ICT Africa Summit is a unique opportunity for companies to meet potential partners, clients and suppliers in only three days, in one place, at a very low cost and in a professional environment with dedicated spaces for one-to-one meetings.

High level information

The round-table discussions, networking sessions and plenary sessions will feed you with valuable information that will allow you to anticipate the demand in rapidly changing markets thus obtaining access to qualified business opportunities (niche markets, new growth market segments, networks of reliable entrepreneurs, viable projects, etc.),

Privileged networking

The NEPAD ICT Africa Summit 2010 will create a platform for participants to get acquainted with financial, education and development institutions from the region and Europe as well as high ranking representatives of Ministries and intermediary organisations. It is a great opportunity to seize all networking opportunities with other participants, discuss and debate topical issues within the ICT sector.
